

Spend your holidays in beautiful Tasmania during January 2007 and learn some amazing taiko drumming from Art Lee, a taiko master direct from Japan.

Most sessions will be held in Hobart, Tasmania's capital city. Set picturesquely between Mount Wellington and the Derwent River, Hobart is surrounded by fresh air and bushland.

There will also be a weekend at Bicheno, on Tasmania's sunny east coast. See inside for more details.

All Hobart training sessions will be at Huon Quays on the banks of the Derwent River, next to the Regatta Grounds and the Queens Domain.

University of Tasmania Taiko Society
C/- TUU, Po Box 950
Sandy Bay, TAS 7006
www.taikodrum.com
info@taikodrum.com

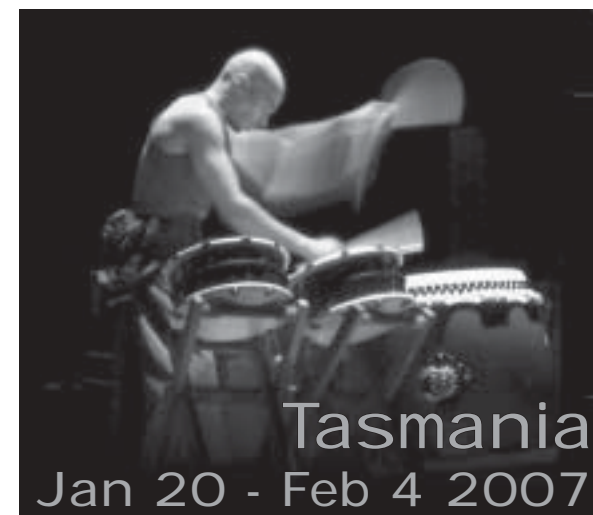

Phone enquiries: Simon 0408 434 608
Maria (03) 62 349404

University of Tasmania Taiko Society
C/- TUU, Po Box 950
Sandy Bay, TAS 7006
www.taikodrum.com
info@taikodrum.com

Phone enquiries: Simon 0408 434 608
Maria (03) 62349404

TAIKO  DRUM

PRESENTS workshops with

Wadaiko Master

ART LEE

2007 HOBART COURSES

wadaiko one - Hobart Tasmania

3 day early intermediate level workshop

Experience the unique fun and exercise of taiko drumming. Learn different styles and play on traditional style Japanese drums.

- For drummers with 1 month to 2 years experience, who want to improve their skills and expand on their love of taiko.

Jan 23, 24, 25, Tue, Wed, Thu

wadaiko two - Hobart Tasmania

3 day advanced intermediate level workshop

Hone your skill, power and spirit through a variety of taiko styles. Expand your rhythmic repertoire.

- For drummers with 1 to 6 years' experience who really want to take taiko to new heights of percussive excellence, and channel the spirit of ancient Japan through their bachi.

Jan 30, 31, Feb 1, Tue, Wed, Thu

Weekend wadaiko workshops - Hobart Tasmania

2 day workshops to rekindle the flame, and throw a few logs on the fire

- For both levels.

Jan 20 + 21, Sat - Sun

Feb 3 + 4, Sat - Sun

wadaikoart - BICHENO ONLY

Can't come for the full course?
Then come to this one - the W course!

Spend a weekend in Tasmania's sunny East Coast at the seaside resort of Bicheno, with its spectacular granite shoreline, amazing blowhole, and gorgeous beach just right for swimming. The workshop caters for all levels and will be fun for everyone. Learn some energetic taiko drumming from Taiko Master Art Lee, direct from Japan. Food and accommodation included. Accommodation strictly limited, book now to ensure your place.

Jan 27 + 28, Sat - Sun

Workshop costing

$450/350 for W course (Bicheno weekend only).

$900/800 for X or Y course days (5 days, including Bicheno weekend).

$1200/1000 Z course (9 days including Bicheno weekend).

Meals and accommodation are included for Bicheno weekend only.

X Course - 5 days (3 weekdays + 1 weekend)
Early intermediate workshop + Bicheno weekend

Y Course - 5 days (1 weekend + 3 weekdays)
Bicheno weekend + advanced intermediate workshop

Z Course - 9 days (3 weekends + 3 weekdays)
- choose from Wadaiko 1 or Wadaiko 2

Name: (Please print) M F

Address:

Phone: (day)
(evening)

Email:

I would like to book for:
(See blue boxes at left for explanation of courses)

W course - Bicheno only

X course - 5 days early intermediate

Y course - 5 days advanced intermediate

Z course - 9 days early intermediate

Z course - 9 days advanced intermediate

A minimum deposit of $100 must be received by December 22, 2006 to ensure your place. Balance to be paid by January 12, 2007.

Direct deposit details:
Commonwealth Bank, Tas Uni branch
BSB: 06 7104
Ac. No: 10107739

Cheques payable to
University of Tasmania Taiko Society
c/- 174 Mt Rumney Road
Mt Rumney TAS 7170

Limited billeting may be available in Hobart. Please enquire.

www.taikodrum.com

info@taikodrum.com