

TAIKO DRUM

PLAYERS:

Pam Cooper
Jennifer Cossins
Sushila Desai
Rasa Dunlop
Keryn Fountain
Jason Green
Maria Grist
Armin Howald
Simeon Howe
Tony Howe
Ben Muir
Ana Page
Mari-Anna Reiljan-Dillon
Simon Vanyai
Lara Wasilewski

CONCERT

Moonah Arts Centre

65 Hopkins St Moonah

30 April 2004

7.30 pm

Thanks to Sally Long and our stage helpers.
Thanks also to the Moonah Arts Centre for making this event possible.

Program

1. Shakuhachi Solo. Jennifer Cossins
2. Zoku Group, led by Simon Vanyai
3. Synko Group, led by Simon Vanyai
4. Improvisation. Jennifer Cossins (flute),
Rasa Dunlop (bell),
Lara Wasilewski (drum)
Simon Vanyai (drum)
5. Yatai Bayashi Group
6. Hachijo. Rasa Dunlop and Keryn Fountain
7. Suzuran Simon Vanyai, Lara Wasilewski (drums)
Jennifer Cossins (flute)
8. Seichaku no Wa Group, led by Ana Page
9. Tassie Jima Group, led by Simon Vanyai
10. Soran Simon Vanyai (drums)
Jennifer Cossins (flute)
Group (singing)

The University of Tasmania Taiko Society

was formed in July 2002, as a non profit volunteer based initiative to study the traditional Japanese Drumming, with the hope of using Taiko as a vehicle for promoting friendship and understanding between cultures.

Taiko (Japanese drumming) is a visually spectacular art form, which originated in the festivals and rituals of the agricultural society of ancient Japan.

New members are welcome to our practices. Beginner's classes are held at 6.30 pm on Tuesdays at Huon Quays on the Domain, near the Regatta grounds.

UTTS web site: <http://www.taikodrum.com>.
Email: info@taikodrum.com.
Phone: Simon 0408 434 608
Maria (03) 62349404

Sponsors (L-R): Tasmanian Cask Company, Tasmanian Regional Arts, Log Drums Tasmania, Web Angels - web solutions, Australia-Japan Society, Japan Club, Tasmanian University Union, Multicultural Tasmania.